Candidate's Card

TO THE VOTERS OF
APPOMATTOX COUNTY:

Tuesday, July 14, is Democratic Primary Election Day in Appomattox County. I am a candidate for the office of Sheriff, and will greatly appreciate your vote and active support. If nominated and elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and give the office my personal attention. I expect to hold the Office for the term for which elected, and have no idea of resigning and having someone else appointed. I believe my experience as Deputy Sheriff fully qualifies me for this position.

I will appreciate your vote and support.

Sincerely,
D. A. Conner.

To The Voters of
Appomattox County:

I wish to inform the voters of my county that I am a candidate to succeed myself as Sheriff. It is my sincere desire, based upon my past training and experience, to perform the duties of my office efficiently and faithfully to the best of my ability. My past official record as Sheriff, the duties I perform, dates, hours, cases worked on, papers served, hours worked, miles traveled, is open for investigation in my office for anyone. It is my pleasure to serve you as Sheriff, and I need the job and I need your vote and support which will be sincerely appreciated.

David T. Robertson,
Sheriff.

Candidate's Card

To the Voters of
Clover Hill District:

I have filed as a candidate for re-election to represent the Clover Hill Magisterial District on the Board of Supervisors, subject to the Primary Election of July 14 . I solicit your continued support and promise my best efforts for the good of our district and county.

R. M. Webb.

To The Voters of Stonewall Magisterial District,
Appomattox County:

At the request of my friends, I have decided to be a candidate for the office of Supervisor of Stonewall Magisterial District, subject to the Democratic Primary Election of July 14, 1959. I will greatly appreciate your support and if elected promise to serve to the best of my ability.

Irby B. Wheeler .

(to 7-9-p)

To The Voters of
Appomattox County:

I have filed as a candidate for the Office of Commissioner of the Revenue, subject to the Primary Election of July 14, 1959. I hope to see each of you personally prior to the election. I solicit your vote and support and promise, if elected, to render fair, courteous and faithful service to all our citizens.

Your Friend,
John Curtis Caldwell.

To the Taxpayers
and My Friends of
Appomattox County:

I am sorry that I have been unable to come around and see you good people, but knowing me as long as you have, I believe that you had rather that I stay in the office and attend to the business for which you elected me. I appreciate your support heretofore and trust that you will continue the same.

As ever, your friend,
J. H. O'Brien,
Commissioner of Revenue.

To The Voters of
Stonewall District:

I will be a candidate for re-election for the office of supervisor from Stonewall District of Appomattox County, subject to the Democratic Primary Election to be held on July 14, 1959

I will deeply appreciate your vote and active support, and if re-elected, I will continue to represent the people of this district honestly, and sincerely, and carry out the duties of this office to the best of my ability.

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY
In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Drucilla Layne Martin, who was called home July 9, 1946.

You are gone but not forgotten,
Never will your memory fade,
Loving thoughts will always linger
Around the grave where you were laid.

May our dear Lord love and keep you,
Ever in his tender care,
And bring us at last to meet you,
In our heavenly home up there.

BINGHAM - WINGFIELD

The marriage of Miss Joyce Barbara Wingfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J .Julian Wingfield, to Floyd Everett Bingham, son of Mr. J. Alec Bingham, of Lynchburg, and the late Mrs. Myrna Childress Bingham, took place Friday evening, July 3, in the Methodist Parsonage in Appomattox.

The Rev. Richard Bergdoll performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard L. Wingfield, and her sister, Mrs. Betty W. Witt, of Lynchburg, was her only attendant.

The groom had as his best man his father, Mr. Alec Bingham.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception for both families at their home.

McCORMICK REUNION

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McCormick, Sr., met at the home of Mr and Mrs. James Ferguson, of Timberlake Road, Lynchburg, Va., on Sunday, July 5, for their annual reunion.

All were present except Mrs. Lewis McCormick, Jr., who was in the Virginia Baptist Hospital recuperating from a serious operation, and Mrs. Nancy Candler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, who was in Virginia Baptist Hospital with a new baby girl, the first to be born on July 4th, and to receive the free bed and mattress from Shewel Furniture Store this year.

After a bountiful dinner and supper in the yard, and much visiting and fellowship in the afternoon, the group parted, each going his separate way near and far, but looking forward to fun and fellowship together again next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bolden McCormick of Spout Spring, Va.

Those attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Bolden McCormick, and daughter, Maurine, of Spout Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carter, Barbara and Wanda; Mr. Lewis McCormick, Pete, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ferguson, of Appomattox; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie McCormick, Mr and Mrs. Douglas Staten, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley McCormick, Brenda and Rocky, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams, Bonnie, Linda, and Julie, Mr. and Mrs .Calvin McCormick, Calvin Jr. and Patricia, Mr. Charlie Candler and Danny, and Mr .and Mrs. James Ferguson, all of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clapp and Denise and Clinton, of Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Ferguson and Taney Joe, of Lakehurst, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tinnell and daughters, Janice, Charlotte and Denise, of Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ripley, of Madison Heights, Va.

Hixburg

Hixburg, July 7.- For several weeks the dairymen have been using winter food for their cows.

From the first of May until June 30, there was no rain; just one sprinkle.

Mr. Bob Covington and Mrs. Frank Irving, the crack gardeners in this neighborhood, have been using tomatoes from their gardens ever since June 18.

The Rev. Donald Carson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford, N. C., will begin a revival on Sunday, July 12, at 8:00 P. M., at the Walker's Presbyterian Church. There will be services each evening through Friday. Will Crumpler will lead the singing.

There is to be special music several evenings.

When Nancy Carson drove her car into the churchyard at Walker's Presbyterian Church on Sunday, someone exclaimed, "There's Mr. Carson." Surprised and delighted were the people to see him, after his months of sickness. He explained, "My Doctor turned me loose Thursday."

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Glover, Jr., Lynn and Vicki left on Thursday afternoon for Huntsville, Alabama, to attend the wedding of his brother, Fred.

Miss Martha Magdalene Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs . Travis Reynolds, of Huntsville, and Mr. Fred Christian Glover were married at Huntsville Park Baptist Church on Saturday evening at 7:30.

Marvin Glover was his brother's best man. A reception was held at the church.

The couple will live in Lynchburg. A/3C Hunter Goin, who has been sationed in Africa, is at home on a 30-days' furlough. On August 1, he will leave for Sacramento, California, his next station.

While on the other side, he visited Italy, Greece and Turkey.

During the 26 months he has been in service, he has not missed a day from active duty, except on vacations.

Estelle Covington spent last week at the F. F. A. and F. H. A. Camp in Smithfield. Also she went to see "Common Glory" in Williamsburg.

Mrs. Frances Lorenze returned to Dover, N. J., on Sunday, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Covington for two weeks. Other guests in this home last week were Bill Lorenze and Mrs. Anna Miller, of Philadelphia.

Pvt. Omer Gowin, of Fort Jackson, S. C., is at home on a 15-day furlough. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goblie on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs .Frank Goin announce the birth of a daughter, Sheila Annette, on Friday, June 26, at Southside Community Hospital in Farmville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harwood, Jr., and Hamner, of Appomattox, called on Miss Maggie Hix on Saturday.

Mr. Frank Gilliam, of Roanoke, and his sister, Marguerite, of Appomattox visited her Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Wilson Hix was hostess to the Business Womens' Club of Elon Baptist Church on Monday evening. Mrs. Robert Harris had charge of the program.

No Rain

An Indian had attended services one Sunday morning. The sermon had been very loud in spots and the Indian, although a good Christian, was not greatly impressed.

Later, when asked how he had liked the sermon, he said, "High wind. Big thunder. No rain."

MISS KRISTIN KOOS WINS HONOR ON ESSAY

(Note: We are delighted to receive news from Mrs. George L. Koos, Jr., of Tangent, Oregon. Mrs. Koos is the daughter of the late Dr. D .A. Christian, Jr., of Appomattox. Mrs. Koos this week sent us a clipping from The Albany, Ore., Democrat Herald, of June 30, reporting a recent honor won by her daughter).

Miss Kristin Koos, Tangent, was listed among the award winners in the state-wide Garden Club essay contest. Miss Koos won second place in Division One, for students from the fifth to the eighth grades.

The essay entitled, "What Wild Flowers Mean to Me," previously won first place in the contest sponsored by the Tangent Garden Club, and also it was awarded first place among the entries in the Santiam District No. 3 competition.

The purpose of the contest is to promote interest in conservation. Miss Koos was awarded a red ribbon, $10, and a certificate of achievement.

Note: Mrs. Koos was a former president of the Appomattox Garden Club, before moving to Oregon. She writes that she hopes someone from Appomattox will visit Oregon for its Centennial and World Trade Fair this summer. Her daughter, Kristin, is twelve. Appomattox friends are proud of her accomplishments.)

MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Dr. Bernard S. Vis, Superintendent of the Virginia Annual Conference Home for the Aged, "The Hermitage," in Richmond, Va., will be the guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock service on Sunday, July 12, at the Memorial Methodist Church. The pastor will be in Hampton, Va., Phoebus Methodist Church, a former pastorate, performing a marriage ceremony in the Army Chapel at Fort Monroe. Dr. Vis has been the head of the Home for the Aged, located at 1600 Westwood Avenue, for the past nine years, having accepted the challenge of renovating the large dwelling purchased by the Conference and supervising the building of a comoodious dining hall facility, a well - equipped infirmary, and the New Chapel now in the process of completion. The Virginia Annual Conference is proud to have such a "miracle in brick" for the care of the sick and aging—a combined six building modern facility valued in excess of $2,000,000. There are nearly 200 guests in the home and the total budget for operating expenses per year is well over $200,000. The entire project is supported almost wholly by the free gifts of the Methodist people of Virginia, and their many friends. Every member of Memorial is urged to be present on Sunday morning to hear the Message of a Miracle being enacted before our very eyes.

Mrs .O. W. Martin, Jr., Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Lynchburg District Woman's Society of Christian Service, will bring the inspirational message in the absence of the pastor, who will be preaching in revival services in Early's Chapel Methodist Church near Rustburg.

During next week, several of the youth of the church and Jim Bengdoll serving on the staff, will be at Camp Kawanees, a recently provided camp facility by the Lynchburg and Staunton Districts of the Virginia Annual Conference.
